Thank you for your recent enquiry regarding Council Tax Discount due to a member of your household being detained.

It is possible that you may receive a discount on your Council Tax bill and I would be grateful if you would complete the following questions and return this form so that any entitlement can be assessed.

This application form must be made by the person liable to pay Council Tax and not by the person eligible for the discount (unless they are the same).

1. Name of person detained: _____

2. Place of detainment: _____

_____ Tel _____

3. Date detained: _____ 4. Date expected to be released: _____

Signed.....

Date.....

NB If the detainment is for less than 4 months, it would be helpful if you could state the reason for the detainment. This information is not essential to make a claim, but it may avoid delays in assessing your claim in respect of shorter periods.
